5. Your feedback

As a Charter participant, you agree to share honest feedback on the program, including a short feedback form at the end of the six weeks. ICC may use anonymized insights in program and marketing materials without identifying you. Your name, likeness or a direct quote will be used only with your separate written permission.

6. Confidentiality and recording

What participants share within the cohort stays within the cohort. You agree to keep other participants' contributions confidential, and ICC will keep your personal information and anything you share in sessions confidential, except where disclosure is required by law. Your mailing address and contact details are used only to deliver the program and are never sold or shared.

Sessions are not recorded unless every participant agrees in writing beforehand. Participants may not record sessions.

7. Nature of coaching

Leadership coaching is not therapy, counseling or mental-health treatment, and it is not a substitute for professional medical, legal or financial advice. Results depend on your own participation and choices, and no specific outcome is guaranteed.

8. Program materials

The Inner Compass Workbook, the Inner Compass Leadership Framework™, Navigating the Next Season, slides and session content belong to Carol Anne Gonsales, Ed.D. and Inner Compass Collective, LLC. They are yours for personal use. Please do not copy, resell, share or teach them without written permission.

9. General terms

These terms are governed by the laws of the State of Hawai'i. If a disagreement comes up, both parties agree to first try in good faith to resolve it informally, then through mediation by videoconference before any other action. If any part of these terms is found unenforceable, the rest remains in effect.

10. Acceptance

By submitting the enrollment form and completing payment, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agree to these terms and policies.
